

Drs BOSCH, Peggy

Peggy Bosch is a psychologist, licensed acupuncturist, and Heilpraktiker (German name for a state exam that allows non-MDs to work in healthcare), who will receive her PhD (in psychology) from the Radboud University, Nijmegen (Netherlands) on the 26th of November 2015 on acupuncture in the treatment of depression, schizophrenia and sleep disorders. She works as a fulltime psychologist at a psychiatric clinic (LVR-Klinik Bedburg-Hau, Germany) where she also treats patients with acupuncture and leads an acupuncture research group. She is an author of numerous papers in this field and is a lecturer at the Shenzhou Open University of TCM in Amsterdam and at International Lectures (both in the Netherlands).