

Dr LIN, Shun Ku

Dr. Shun-Ku Lin is a licensed traditional Chinese medicine and acupuncture physician at Taipei City Hospital, Renai Branch in Taiwan. He was graduated from the Institute of Traditional Medicine in National Yang-Ming University, and obtained specialist of the Association of Traditional Chinese Family Medicine. He led a research group focused on dementia and published over 40 peer-reviewed manuscripts. He creates a structured treatment to release the degenerative and behavioal syndrome of dementia patients. He is expert in the study of National health insurance research database, including herb-drug interaction, clinical efficacy, prevention of complications, and utilization analysis. His research is supported by Department of Health, Taipei City Government and Department of Chinese Medicine and Pharmacy.