

Professor WANG, Xu Dong

Wang Xudong, Professor of Nanjing University of Chinese Medicine, Doctoral Supervisor. Serves as member of the national committee of CPPCC, academic leader of National Key Disciplines, chief expert of Major Project of National Social Scientific Fund. Holds concurrent posts of vice chairman of Health Rehabilitation Branch, Culture of Chinese Medicine Branch and Literature Branch in China Association for Traditional Chinese Medicine, vice president of Chinese philosophy of Traditional Chinese Medicine in Chinese Philosophy History Society and Nanjing society of traditional Chinese Medicine. Once acquired more than 10 awards including National Prize for Progress in Science and Technology and Ministry provincial Science and Technology Award. Published more than 60 works and more than 100 scientific papers. Won honorary title of China's Outstanding Young Chinese Medicine Gold Baosteel National Excellent Teacher. Be selected by the National Key Talent Project and the second level of 333 Talents Project of Jiangsu Province. Long engaged in researching and teaching on Chinese rehabilitation, history and literature of Chinese Medicine. Led the formation of discipline system of Healing medicine and physical therapy, Chinese rehabilitation in Nanjing University of Chinese Medicine. Highly popular in extension about national TCM health preserving. Works cast long shadows which include The Integration of Rare Chinese Medicine Ancient Books, Dictionary of Traditional Chinese Medicine Prescription Databases (the Second Edition), 100 Years of Jinling Traditional Chinese Medicine, Discipline history of Traditional Chinese Medicine, TCM rehabilitation research, etc.